

Milwaukee Public Theatre and Milwaukee Mask and Puppet Theatre invite you to a benefit for our public artworks and parades

Celebrate outstanding individuals who support the arts in Milwaukee!
Help make our Public Artworks noteworthy and spectacular!

CHAMPIONS OF THE ARTS CELEBRATION June 28, 2011, Historic Turner Hall Ballroom

5 p.m. Social hour with a silent auction, hors d'oeuvres, desserts, cash bar, and roving entertainers, including musicians, magicians, and fortune tellers

6 p.m. Champions of the Arts Awards

Brad Bernard, Executive Director, Community Art and Funk Festival;
Assistant Professor, Mt. Mary College; award-winning teacher and visual artist.

Mario Costantini, arts and civic activist, owner of La Lune Collection, supporter of Riverwest youth center, "Mad Hot Ballroom" school dance competition, the Milwaukee Youth Arts Center and the Florentine Opera.

Julia Taylor, President of the Greater Milwaukee Committee; art enthusiast and photographer.

7 p.m. Silent Auction Announcements

Please reserve tickets by Friday, June 17, 2011 by mailing the enclosed form with your payment, faxing it to 414-347-1690, or by calling Milwaukee Public Theatre at 414-347-1685.

Collaborating partners already include over 40 community organizations, agencies and schools. They bring together hundreds of people of all ages, cultures and abilities to create and celebrate our community's stories, cultures and talents. We anticipate reaching over 12,000 people from all parts of Milwaukee through free-to-the-public workshops and community-building parades, including: Make-A-Parade Workshops, Summer of Peace Rally and Parade, Gordon Park Independence Day Parade, the All-City People's Parade, the Community Art and Funk Festival, Lindsay Heights Harvest Day and Dia de los Muertos Parade.

Artists, youth, and community groups will transform your donation dollars into wonderfully imaginative masks, puppets, parade floats, music and dance that tell Milwaukee's story.
